Greet Should Come Again,

In this age of numberless theatrimethods of the modern circus mana- Lynde building. ger to draw the public to the box office it is not easy for the lover of offerings in the amusement line to distinguish between the bad and meri. LOSTtorious attractions. For this reason the Ben Greet company of English players did not draw audiences to the Illinois Saturday afternoon and evening of the size deserved. The Greet company rarely gives performances outside of the large cities. It was H. J. TOHER & CO.-Brokers, Davenpassing from San Francisco to Chiago, where an extended engagement is to be played, and it was decided to drop off at a few points enroute. Rock GEORGE H. SIDWELL & CO .- Com-Island was one of the cities favored. In the afternoon the company presented "The Merchant of Venice" and in the evening "Much Ado About Nothing."
